

It's Our Issue Together: Lunch Line

Read about the problem below. Then both you and your parent/guardian can write some ideas for solutions. At the end, combine your ideas to create some problem-solving solutions!

Step one

Problem/Issue: Jake is standing in line for lunch. Two of his peers walk up to him and tell him "your shirt is stupid, so that means you are stupid too." Then they tell him his food choices will make him fat and ugly. This insults Jake, and he doesn't know what to do.
