

A Sticky Situation: Cyberbullying - Episode 7

The sticky situation: You've been talking to someone online for three months now, and they seem really cool. They want to meet in person over the weekend. What do you do?

For the adult: Discuss this with your child or teen and write a few sentences about how one should effectively resolve this sticky situation.

For the child: Draw and write a short comic using the ideas from the discussion and words above to resolve the sticky situation.
